Print salutation in address header

In the Report Setup, you can define whether the form of address should be used in documents.

Requirements:

1. the salutation code is filled in on the customer card
2. Via Salutations > Formula a value for address salutation is defined.

When creating documents, the address salutation is printed above the customer name in the address header.